We are privileged to have Audrey Cupples, featured soloist with the United States Marine Band with us tonight playing a tribute to the great saxophonist, Rudy Weidoeft. Ms. Cupples attended the Eastman School of Music where she studied with Ramon Ricker. She graduated in 1986, having won the prestigious Performer's Certificate. She played principle saxophone on Wynton Marsalis' grammy-nominated "Carnival Album". In 1988 she joined "The President's Own" United States Marine Band, where she has been a featured soloist on alto and baritone saxophone. She is the baritone saxophonist with the East Coast Saxophone Quartet which released their first album, "Americana Suite", in 1995. She recently released her own solo album, "Sunshine and Tears". She has appeared with dozens of celebrities during her career. For additional information about Ms. Cupples, visit www.dibida.com.
