

Welcome!

For many years a Neale Concert Series favorite, the Loudoun Concert Band returns tonight as the Loudoun Symphonic Winds. The new name reflects the increasing accomplishments of this fine organization. We know that you will enjoy this evening's interesting and exciting program, and thank you for coming!

* * * * *

*The Neale Concert Series is dependent upon its Patrons for their financial support.
Our special thanks go to the following:*

Erin and Don Bucci
Charles and Jane Carlson
Jim and Doris Campbell
Stephen Combs
Anna Jane Doyle
Priscilla and Dennis Godfrey
Mrs. James A. Gray, Jr.
JoAnn D. Johnson
Lyn and Robert Holmes
Otilie and Fred Ilge
Dr. and Mrs. Rodney A.
Kander and Family

The Loudoun Arts Council
Christopher R. Maré
Mr. and Mrs. John D. Marsh
Mr. and Mrs. James Power
Mr. and Mrs. John Prohaska
The Robey Charitable Trust
Anne Siegel
Laura Splain
Betty Sturman
The Tara Foundation
Mr. and Mrs. Newell Trask

* * * * *

Loudoun Valley High School, Purcellville, Virginia
March 29, 2003 at 7:30 PM

PROGRAM

"March Madness"

Loudoun Symphonic Winds
Gilbert C. Corella, Principal Conductor

Welcome and Remarks

John D. Marsh for the Neale Concert Committee

Presentation of Loudoun Arts Council Award

Christopher Maré, Loudoun Arts Council

Bravura

C. E. Duple

Light Calvary Overture

Franz von Suppe
Arranged by Henry Fillmore

Marche des Parachutistes Belges

Pierre Leemans

Officer of the Day

R. B. Hall

Valdres

Johannes Hanssen

The Klaxon

Henry Fillmore

INTERMISSION

Coronation March

Piotr Tchaikovsky

Children's March

Percy Grainger